TECHNOLOGICAL ADVISORY COUNCIL TO HOLD MEETING

The FCC's Technological Advisory Council will hold its fourth meeting under its renewed charter Friday, April 26, 2002 at 10:00 a.m. in the Commission's meeting room at 445 12th St. S.W., Washington, D.C. The meeting originally scheduled for March 20 has been cancelled.

The Council was formed to provide the Commission with technical insights concerning innovations in communications and related industries. The Council is a Federal Advisory Committee Act committee comprised of a broad array of well-known technologists and chaired by Dr. Robert Lucky, Corporate Vice President, Telcordia Technologies. The Council will discuss the progress of the Council's focus groups.

Members of the general public may attend the meeting. The Federal Communications Commission will attempt to accommodate as many persons as possible. Admittance, however, will be limited to the seating available. There will be no public oral participation unless requested by the Chair, but the public may submit written comments before the meeting to Jeffery Goldthorp, the Council's Designated Federal Officer. Mr. Goldthorp's e-mail address is jgoldtho@fcc.gov. His U.S. Postal Service mail address is Jeffery Goldthorp, Chief, Network Technology Division, Office of Engineering and Technology, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20554.

For further information, contact Robert Kimball at 202-418-2339 voice, 202-418-2989 tty, 202-418-1944 FAX, bkimball@fcc.gov. RealAudio access to the meeting and other information about the Technological Advisory Council may be obtained through the Commission's web site at <http://www.fcc.gov/>.
